Key text learning to do at home

1. Read the key text out loud – everyday.
2. Look, cover and check the top 10s in your Knowledge Organiser – everyday.
3. Copy and RAG (Red – don't know, Amber – not sure, Green – absolutely know) the top 10s on lined paper – once a week.
4. Copy with Code - see how much you can say/write using just the first letters of the key text, see your Knowledge Organiser– twice a week.
5. Adapt and re-write a section of the key text changing the words, adapting it to yourself – once a week.

Other techniques- choose three to do extra per week

6. Plain paper squares technique – fold a piece of plain paper, break a sentence down into small phrases and write onto the small squares, gradually cover up the squares with small bits of paper until you know it off by heart, repeat with a new sentences.
7. Copy out ten phrases that you don't know three times in BOLD letters.
8. Copy out key text phrases and CUDDLE text (count letters, underline double vowels, dot the silent letters, double underline double letters, look at the double LL in Spanish or liaison in French, exaggerate accents).
9. Colour the key text: green= verbs, yellow = adjectives, red = nouns/names, blue = connectives.
10. Make flashcards – foreign language on the one side, English on the other. Sort into 3 piles – 1 pile you don't know, 1 pile not sure, 1 pile you know. Go through the don't know and not sure pile first each day.
11. Make a song or rap out of the key text - it can be for your ears only or if you are brave enough you can perform it in class. (HP's waiting!)
12. Think of another creative way to present the key text - a board game, a card game, visuals – the sky's the limit.

Read the following information about Cuenca, Spain. Find out where Cuenca is and draw a map of Spain with Cuenca and 4 other major cities. Write a short leaflet on why tourists should visit Cuenca. (max 200 words)

Built by the Moors in a defensive position at the heart of the Caliphate of Cordoba, Cuenca is an unusually well-preserved medieval fortified city. Conquered by the Castilians in the 12th century, it became a royal town with important buildings, such as Spain's first Gothic cathedral, and the famous casas colgadas (hanging houses), suspended from sheer cliffs overlooking the Huécar river. During the 19th century the city expanded onto nearby low-land and in fact became two cities: the upper, old city and the lower, modern one close to the railway from Madrid. The old city was designated a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1996.

Every year many tourists visit Cuenca as it is a very interesting and historical city with many old buildings and cultural centres. Food is good, offering typical Spanish dishes such as tor-tilla de patata and tapas.

JARABE DE PALO—BONITO

Bonito

Todo me parece bonito

Bonita mañana, bonito lugar

Bonita la cama, qué bien se ve el mar

Bonito es el día

Que acaba de empezar

Bonita la vida

Respira, respira, respira

El teléfono suena, mi pana se queja

La cosa va mal, la vida le pesa

Que vivir así ya no le interesa

Que seguir así no vale la pena

Se perdió el amor, se acabó la fiesta

Ya no anda el motor que empuja la tierra

La vida es un chiste con triste final

El futuro no existe, pero yo le digo

Bonito

Todo me parece bonito

Bonito

Todo me parece bonito

Bonita la paz, bonita la vida

Bonito volver a nacer cada día

Bonita la verdad cuando no suena a mentira

Bonita la amistad, bonita la risa

Bonita la gente cuando hay calidad

Bonita la gente que no se arrepiente

Que gana y que pierde, que habla y no miente

Bonita la gente, por eso yo digo

Bonito

Todo me parece bonito

Bonito

Todo me parece bonito

Beautiful

Everything seems pretty to me

Nice morning, nice place

The bed is beautiful, the sea looks good

Beautiful is the day

That just started

Beautiful life

Breathe, breathe, breathe

The phone rings, my mate complains

Things are going bad, life weighs on him

That living like this no longer interests him

That going on like this is not worth it

Love was lost, party's over

The engine that pushes the earth no longer runs

Life is a joke with a sad ending

The future does not exist, but I tell you

Beautiful

Everything seems pretty to me

Beautiful

Everything seems pretty to me

Beautiful peace, beautiful life

Beautiful to be born again every day

The truth is beautiful when it does not sound like a lie

The friendship is beautiful, the laughter is beautiful

Nice people when there is quality

Beautiful people who do not regret

Who wins and loses, who speaks and does not lie

Pretty people, that's why I say

Beautiful

Everything seems pretty to me

Beautiful

Everything seems pretty to me

How nice you are

When you are pretty

How nice you are

How nice you are

When you are pretty

Los adolescentes hacen volar sus pulgares sobre las pantallas de sus teléfonos inteligentes o smartphones cada vez con más frecuencia.

Un equipo de investigadores de la ONG Common Sense Media realizaron un cuestionario a 1.240 padres y a adolescentes con edades comprendidas entre los 12 y los 18 años.

Los datos revelaron que la mitad de los adolescentes afirmaba sentir adicción hacia el móvil y el 60% de los padres opinaba lo mismo. A pesar de si los padres pensaban si sus hijos eran o no adictos al móvil, el 66% consideró que pasaban demasiado tiempo con el smartphone; en el caso de los adolescentes, el 52% lo veía también así.

Además, el 77% de los padres coincidían en que sus hijos se distraían continuamente -al menos tres veces a la semana- debido al uso del móvil.

Casi el 80% de los jóvenes admitió que revisaba o comprobaba sus notificaciones en el móvil cada hora como mínimo.

El fenómeno de la adicción a los móviles es relativamente reciente, por lo que no hay un diagnóstico oficial al respecto.

“Para los adolescentes, las redes sociales y el contacto con amigos son una tarea primordial de desarrollo y el enfoque. Cuando se quita la línea vital de un adolescente con sus amigos, habrá una reacción emocional importante, una ruptura de la relación padre-hijo”, alerta Bet Peters, psicólogo clínico en Westminster (Inglaterra).

sus pulgares sobre las pantallas = their thumbs on their screens

la mitad de los adolescentes = half of teenagers

la adicción a los móviles = addiction to their phones

las redes sociales = social media

Summary in English

Adolescents are becoming more attached to their phones. A study by the NGO Common Sense Media revealed that half of surveyed young people from age 12 to 18 are addicted to their phones and 60% of parents thought the same. Additionally 77% of parents believed their children to be continuously distracted. Almost 80% of young people admitted checking their phones at least every half hour. But removing access to social media could have a negative impact on young people, as there will be an emotional reaction and this will create a rupture in the relationships between parents and child.
