GQ2:Où es-tu allé en vacances?	Where did you go on holiday?
GQ3: Décris ta vie et tes activités	Describe your life and your activities

Grammar focus:

- To use the present tense to talk about daily routine, where they go, with whom, what they do.
- To use the preterit and imperfect tenses to talk about holidays: country names, activities, weather, opinions.
- To be able to say where they will go in the future.

Count the letters

Underline the double vowels

Double underline the double letters

Dot the silent letters

Liaison

Exaggerate the accents

Key text learning to do at home

1. Read the key text out loud – everyday.
2. Look, cover and check the top 10s in your Knowledge Organiser – everyday.
3. Copy and RAG (Red – don't know, Amber – not sure, Green – absolutely know) the top 10s on lined paper – once a week.
4. Copy with Code - see how much you can say/write using just the first letters of the key text, see your Knowledge Organiser– twice a week.
5. Adapt and re-write a section of the key text changing the words, adapting it to yourself – once a week.

Other techniques- choose three to do extra per week

6. Plain paper squares technique – fold a piece of plain paper, break a sentence down into small phrases and write onto the small squares, gradually cover up the squares with small bits of paper until you know it off by heart, repeat with a new sentences.
7. Copy out ten phrases that you don't know three times in BOLD letters.
8. Copy out key text phrases and CUDDLE text (count letters, underline double vowels, dot the silent letters, double underline double letters, look at the double LL in Spanish or liaison in French, exaggerate accents).
9. Colour the key text: green= verbs, yellow = adjectives, red = nouns/names, blue = connectives.
10. Make flashcards – foreign language on the one side, English on the other. Sort into 3 piles – 1 pile you don't know, 1 pile not sure, 1 pile you know. Go through the don't know and not sure pile first each day.
11. Make a song or rap out of the key text - it can be for your ears only or if you are brave enough you can perform it in class. (HP's waiting!)
12. Think of another creative way to present the key text - a board game, a card game, visuals – the sky's the limit.

On Ecrit Sur Les Murs

On écrit sur les murs le nom de ceux qu'on aime
Des messages pour les jours à venir
On écrit sur les murs à l'encre de nos veines
On dessine tout ce que l'on voudrait dire

Partout autour de nous,
Y'a des signes d'espoir dans les regards
Donnons leurs écrits car dans la nuit
Tout s'efface même leur trace

On écrit sur les murs le nom de ceux qu'on aime
Des messages pour les jours à venir
On écrit sur les murs à l'encre de nos veines
On dessine tout ce que l'on voudrait dire
On écrit sur les murs la force de nos rêves
Nos espoirs en forme de graffiti
On écrit sur les murs pour que l'amour se lève
Un beau jour sur le monde endormi

Des mots seulement gravés pour ne pas oublier pour tout changer
Mélangeons demain dans un refrain nos visages, métissages

On écrit sur les murs le nom de ceux qu'on aime
Des messages pour les jours à venir
On écrit sur les murs à l'encre de nos veines
On dessine tout ce que l'on voudrait dire
On écrit sur les murs la force de nos rêves
Nos espoirs en forme de graffiti
On écrit sur les murs pour que l'amour se lève
Un beau jour sur le monde endormi (x2)

We Write on the Walls

The name of those we love is written on the walls
Messages for the days to come
We write on the walls with our veins' ink
Everything we'd like to say is drawn

Everywhere around us,
There signs of hope in the eyes
Let's give them their pieces of writing because during the night
Everything erase even their mark

The name of those we love is written on the walls
Messages for the days to come
We write on the walls with our veins' ink
Everything we'd like to say is drawn
The strength of our dreams is written on the walls
Our hope graffiti-shaped
We write on the walls for love not go away
One beautiful day on the sleeping world

Words engraved just not to forget to change everything
Tomorrow let's mix in a chorus our faces, our crosses

The name of those we love is written on the walls
Messages for the days to come
We write on the walls with our veins' ink
Everything we'd like to say is drawn
The strength of our dreams is written on the walls
Our hope graffiti-shaped
We write on the walls for love not go away
One beautiful day on the sleeping world (x2)

La Saint-Valentin or Valentine's Day has become a commercial celebration spread across Western Europe and today it revolves around the giving of cards and gifts to the one you love. But where does this tradition come from? Do the French do it differently?

There are many different answers to this question as to the origins of St Valentine's Day remain something of a mystery. While this tradition began as a Christian festival celebrating the various saints named Valentinus gradually, myths were added to this celebration of 14th February.

Notably, the popular account of Saint Valentine of Rome who was imprisoned for conducting weddings for soldiers who were forbidden to marry became associated with February 14th. During his imprisonment he fell in love with the daughter of his jailer and before his execution left her a letter signed 'Your Valentine'. The tradition developed from there and the 14th February became the day of love that we know today.

What do the French do on Valentine's Day? Traditionally the French celebrated Valentine's Day with "une loterie d'amour". This custom saw single people in France standing outside houses calling out for other singletons until they eventually paired off together. If the male were not particularly attracted to his new suitor he would leave her. All of the single women who had been left would then gather to make a fire and burn images of the men that had abandoned them. This ceremony, whilst rather therapeutic for the single women involved, soon got out of hand and was banned by the French government.

Following this ban, in a much less dramatic way, the French would send Valentines greetings. The first recorded French Valentine greeting was allegedly sent by the Duke of Orleans who, imprisoned in the Tower of London, is said to have sent poems and love letters to his wife in France.

Contemporary Valentine's Day traditions have changed and now revolve around the giving of gifts. French florists turnover what they would usually make in a week on Valentine's Day, with 80 percent of their sales being roses. There is in fact a village called St Valentin in Indre that is named after St Valentine himself. The village thus holds many events dedicated to this celebration of love on this amorous day including numerous marriage vow renewals. This year 'le village des amoureux' is hosting a spectacle including the presentation of certificates to lovers, a lunch and a concert, engraving hearts for the Tree of Hearts, and the sale of speciality chocolate and jewellery!

We hope that you enjoy this celebration of love! Be careful, the French celebration of Valentine's Day is only one of love, not of friendship. Typically the French do not send cards at all on La Saint-Valentin and additionally they do not send out valentines gifts to their friends, only to their lovers! So do not get that mixed up!
