

Careers in Health and Social Care

The skills and knowledge you develop studying health and social care often focus on working with and caring for individuals and groups. If you are interested in caring for sick people, improving people's lives or playing a part in the next medical breakthrough, there are plenty of opportunities to consider in the healthcare sector...

Jobs directly related to your degree include:	Jobs where your degree would be useful include:
Midwife Paediatric Nurse Paramedic Physiotherapist Mental Health Nurse Ward Sister Health Visitor Counsellor Health Care Assistant	Teacher Journalist Welfare Adviser Careers Adviser Family Support Worker Youth/Community Worker Social Work Human Resources officer

For further information and job descriptions, please visit www.prospects.ac.uk 😊