Dear Parents / Guardians,

RE: Parent Webinar: How You Can Build Resilience in Your Child

Thank you for your interest in the upcoming Elevate Education Parent Webinar, “How You Can Build Resilience in Your Child.” It is wonderful to see so many families engaging with these opportunities to support their child’s learning at home.

This live webinar will provide practical strategies to help your child bounce back from setbacks and maintain a positive, confident approach to their studies. Whether your child has experienced a disappointing grade, an exam slip-up, or a knock to their confidence, this session aims to equip you with tools to support their wellbeing and academic success.
